

What about have you learned most about God?

What have you learned most about yourself?

What are you stepping up into? What is your 'new' life verse / promise?

What is stopping you?

What are you going to do? In particular:

- what new life rhythms are you going to implement to develop your friendship with Jesus?
- What relationships do you need to deepen, develop or distance?
- Who could you invest in / disciple going forward?
- Who are you going to commit to praying into the kingdom?
